MARTIN FOR SENATE RELEASES CAMPAIGN TEAM AND FINANCE UPDATE

(BOISE, ID) Today Fred S. Martin, Republican candidate for District 15 State Senate seat announced his campaign organization. In addition to Campaign Co-Chairs Ralph Frazer and Ralph G. Gines, the campaign has over one hundred volunteers to help lead the Fred S. Martin campaign to victory.

“I’m honored that so many of my friends, business associates and family members have agreed to volunteer on my behalf as I seek the Republican nomination for the Idaho State Senate,” said Fred Martin.

The Fred S. Martin for Senate Campaign Team is excited to help in this effort. They are well organized with a wealth of knowledge of the district and the Republican Party. Quane Kenyon, Letters to the Editor Chair said, “I’ve reported on hundreds of campaigns throughout my professional career and I’ve never seen a more organized campaign so early in the election.”

Committee of 10,000 Chair, Jennifer Hagerman said “We are pleased to help Fred S. Martin with his bid for the State Senate. We know Fred is a hardworking, honest man, who will do his best to help the people he represents. Fred has always been an example of patriotism and service. We wish him and his family the best of luck in this endeavor.”

Dan L. Wycherly, Campaign Treasurer “Already we have seen a lot of interest from friends and business associates throughout the treasure valley for Fred’s candidacy and has already raised more than $40,000 for the campaign.”

Fred S. Martin is running for an open Senate seat in District 15 in western Ada County. He has served as Boise bureau chief for a congressman, precinct committeeman, Sergeant at Arms for the Idaho Senate, GOP county Vice Chairman in Bannock County, President of the Idaho Student Association and Student Body President at BYU-Idaho, formerly Ricks College. Martin has been active in scouting, United Way, youth basketball and soccer and was named a National Sterling Business Executive.
